

Please do not consider weakening of regulations which limit the number of media outlets an individual or corporation can own in a single local market. These regulations prevent consolidation of media ownership and assure that the public receives information from a broader range of viewpoints.